

Skagit Valley Highland Games Harp Tent Schedule July 8 and 9, 2017

Saturday, July 8, 2017

9:00 – 9:45	Try the Harp! Open discussion with harpers and a chance to play one of their harps*
9:50 – 10:15	Nan Pardew, wire harp
10:20 – 10:50	Becky Fox, wire harp and voice
11:00 – 11:30	Seirm, Gaelic singers and multi-instrument band
11:40 – 12:00	Try the Harp! Open discussion with harpers and a chance to play one of their harps*
12:00 – 12:30	Harp Tent closed for Opening Ceremonies
12:30 – 1:00	Nancy Chouinard, harp and voice
1:05 – 1:35	Molly Bauckham, harp and voice
1:40 – 2:15	Philip Boulding
2:25 – 3:05	Cara Harp Ensemble
3:10 – 3:45	Try the Harp! Open discussion with harpers and a chance to play one of their harps*
4:00 – 4:30	Seirm, Gaelic singers and multi-instrument band
4:30 - ??	Open to all harpers

Sunday, July 9, 2017

9:00 – 9:25	Try the Harp! Open discussion with harpers and a chance to play one of their harps*
9:30 – 9:50	Susan Easthouse, solo harp
10:00 – 10:45	Nan Pardew & Becky Fox, A Walk on the Wired Side
10:50 - 11:20	Cynthia Kuni, solo harp
11:25 – 12:00	Philip Boulding, solo harp
12:05 – 12:30	Try the Harp! Open discussion with harpers and a chance to play one of their harps!
12:30 – 1:00	Harp Tent closed for Opening Ceremonies
1:00 – 1:35	Eric Bowen, Welsh vocal and guitar
1:45 – 2:30	Dinas o Frain, fiddle, flue, concertina and harp
2:40 – 3:10	Linda Khandro, double-strung harp
3:20 – 4:00	Eastside Harp Ensemble
4:15 - ??	Open to all harpers

Any part of this schedule is subject to change due to performer availability

Try the Harp - Have you always wanted to get your arms around a harp? Our harpers will be happy to put a harp in front of you and show you how to play it.

*Seirm – The musical branch of Slighe nan Gaidheal, a non-profit educational organization that teaches and promotes the Scottish Gaelic language and culture in the Pacific Northwest.

A Walk on the Wired Side - Learn about wire-strung harp's history, technique, and differences from the more common nylon-strung harp.